Rose Show Rules & Regulations

Entry show tags available at the Entry Clerk’s Desk from 6:00 AM Saturday, June 23rd /18. Exhibitors will be given a confidential exhibitor’s number when you pick up your tags. Put your exhibitor number, class number, and your name in the designated area of the entry tag BEFORE placing your entries on the show bench. Fold entry tag to conceal exhibitor’s name & number. Place elastic band over the neck of the vase, or in front of bowls, baskets, boxes, etc.

1. The showroom will be open to exhibitors from 6:00 AM, Saturday June 23rd /18.
A special area will be set aside for exhibitors to prepare their entries.
2. All amateur rose growers are eligible to exhibit their roses in this show. All roses exhibited must come from plants they have grown, which have been the exclusive property of the exhibitor for not less than three months prior to the show.
3. All entries in this show must have been grown outdoors by the exhibitor except where otherwise stated.
4. Any person may exhibit as many roses in each class as desired.
5. Bowl & basket entries may be prepared in advance at home. Bowls /baskets will be available at the May 29, 2018 meeting, and also at the Pavilion the morning of the show.
6. May 29th is also LAST date for entry tags & registration to Floral Art section.

Please return unused bowls or baskets to the show.

7. All entries must be placed by 9:45 AM Saturday, June 23, 2018
8. No exhibitor or visitor may enter the show area during the judging, except by special permission of the Show Chairperson.

9. No exhibit or award may be removed from the show area before the close of the show, June 24, 2018 at 3:00PM except where permitted by the Show Chairperson.
10. An exhibitor will remain a novice until anyone of the following is reached:
- A. Three (3) years of exhibiting
 - B. Winning 3 blue ribbons
 - C. Winning the Novice Trophy
11. All vases, bowls, baskets, boxes, and entry cards will be supplied by the Fraser Pacific Rose Society for all exhibits and will remain the property of the Rose Society. Containers must not be removed at the end of the show.
12. All entry tags must have been provided by the Fraser Pacific Rose Society. Any tags of different colour, size, etc. will automatically disqualify the entry. The tag must be filled out with the correct class number, variety & Exhibitors number which must be hand written. The exhibitor's name (inside the tag) may be pre-printed, however, it must not appear in any location other than the designated place on the tag. The tag must be folded so NO portion of exhibitor's name or label is visible.
13. In consideration for no fee being charged to enter the Rose Show, each exhibitor agrees that the Fraser Pacific Rose Society and its officers and committees will not be held responsible for any loss or damage to any person or property.
14. The current American Rose Society's Handbook for Selecting Roses will be used for determining colour classification and where not shown in the handbook, Modern Roses 12 will be the final authority.
15. The decisions of the judges shall be final.
16. All roses exhibited become the property of the FPRS (except Division 14 Floral Art). Exhibitors who wish to take their roses at the end of the show must see the Show Chairperson or his/her appointed assistant. Proceeds from the sale of the roses help offset the cost of putting on the show.
17. Best in Show awards will be selected from single entry classes, except as stated in the Awards & Trophies sections.
18. A "specimen bloom" in exhibition form typically refers to a bloom that is one-half to three-quarters open displaying a regular conical high center.

Notice to Novice Exhibitors

There will be a table set up in the grooming area especially for Novice entrants with experienced exhibitors on hand to help you with your entries.

Rules for Disqualification

Misnamed, unlabeled, misclassified or mislabeled roses will be disqualified in Open classes only. Novice and Junior classes will not be disqualified. However, every effort should be made to properly name the roses for the benefit of the public.
